

The Frankoma Potteries was formed for the sole purpose of producing a Ceramic Art of the finest character possible, to sell at a popular price. Each piece is designed in their own studios, and made from Oklahoma clays. The line of unusual glazes are produced in their own laboratories. They have become rightfully famous for their production of "Utility Art"—art that is useful. Their Ceramic Sculpture is also a valuable contribution to Creative Art.